the drawings, pages , as originally filed,
pages , filed with the demand,
pages , received on with the letter of the sequence listing part of the description:

pages , as originally filed
pages , filed with the demand
pages , received on with the letter of

2. With regard to the language, all the elements marked above were available or furnished to this Authority in the language in which the international application was filed, unless otherwise indicated under this item.

These elements were available or furnished to this Authority in the following language which is:

the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international search (under Rule 23.1(b)).

the language of publication of the international application (under Rule 48.3(b)).

the language of the translation furnished for the purposes of international preliminary examination (under Rules 55.2 and/or 55.3).

3. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application, the international preliminary examination was carried out on the basis of the sequence listing:

contained in the international application in written form.

filed together with the international application in computer readable form.

furnished subsequently to this Authority in written form.

furnished subsequently to this Authority in computer readable form.

The statement that the subsequently furnished written sequence listing does not go beyond the disclosure in the international application as filed has been furnished.

The statement that the information recorded in computer readable form is identical to the written sequence listing has been furnished

4. The amendments have resulted in the cancellation of:

the description, pages

the claims, Nos.

the drawings, sheets/fig.

5. This report has been established as if (some of) the amendments had not been made, since they have been considered to go beyond the disclosure as filed, as indicated in the Supplemental Box (Rule 70.2(c)).

* Replacement sheets which have been furnished to the receiving Office in response to an invitation under Article 14 are referred to in this report as "originally filed" and are not annexed to this report since they do not contain amendments (Rules 70.16 and 70.17).

 Any replacement sheet containing such amendments must be referred to under item 1 and annexed to this report

V. Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims 3, 4, 10, 13-17, 19, 26	YES
	Claims 1, 2, 5-9, 11, 12, 18, 20-25, 27	NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims	YES
	Claims 1-27	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims 1-27	YES
	Claims	NO

2. Citations and explanations (Rule 70.7)

D1: CA 2277383

D2: WO 1992/018249

NOVELTY (N):

Claims 1, 2, 5-9, 11, 12, 18, 20-25, 27: D1 and D2 each disclose methods that fall within the scope of these claims. Thus these claims cannot be considered novel.

INVENTIVE STEP (IS):

Claims 1, 2, 5-9, 11, 12, 18, 20-25, 27: As above

Claims 3, 4, 10, 13-17, 19, 26: The cited documents disclose the general principal whereby microwave energy may be used to induce microfractures or similar physical alteration of an ore while not substantially altering the mineralogy. These claims relate to additional features that constitute minor modifications of the known processes or additional processes, such as screening, that are common general knowledge in the art. These additional features and processes do not represent an inventive improvement over the prior art.

VIII. Certain observations on the international application

The following observations on the clarity of the claims, description, and drawings or on the question whether the claims are fully supported by the description, are made:

1. Claim 19 is not clear in that there is no antecedent in any of the preceding claims for "the transfer chute".
